

September 15, 2005

Paycor has used Personnel Profiles' Achiever as one part of our leadership hiring and interviewing process for the past three years.

In addition to creating focus areas to probe in the interview, the cognitive skills portion of the assessment is useful in evaluating an individual's fit for a particular job. We find the tool equally useful in coaching and development of internal candidates seeking leadership positions.

The Personnel Profiles staff is exceptionally responsive and their guidance and direction is never more than a phone call away.

Shirley LaPiana-Martin
Vice President, Human Resources
Paycor, Inc.